

Teik featuring Benjamin Kasongo 03:04

Been dark days, grey clouds, thunder, heaven speaks lightning loud
Silence broken, we speak words but leave so much unspoken, wounds open
The unsaid desert, dry winds, heat, flower beds wither in dust
Sand storms, rock, weakening, stumbling blocks
All the while
I pray for rain, cleansing, healing
Knowing, no hoping, believing
Release breathing

Chorus

*Finally I'm coming home to you
I'm so glad hallelujah
Finally I'm coming home to you
I'm so glad hallelujah*

Walked a road too long
Felt too far gone never been so weak, trembling, shaking, alone
Never felt so lost crying moan, couldn't find my way
Till winter turned sweet summer's song
And then I never felt so in my own, skin, flesh, bone
Strong, home

Chorus

*Finally I'm coming home to you
I'm so glad hallelujah
Finally I'm coming home to you
I'm so glad hallelujah
I can't wait until tomorrow to see your pretty face again
Finally I'm coming home to you
I'm so glad hallelujah*

Music by: L. Raimondi ▪ Lyrics by: B. Amansure & B. K. Katulu ▪ Produced by: Al R (aka J Guelara) ▪
Bass by: T. Schiavano ▪ Recorded at: Metalloid Studio (Cape Town) by Gary 'Arsenic', Studio Obe im
Eggä (Bern) by Benjamin Kasongo & Tonee's crib by Tonee ▪ Mixed by: Jan Stehle at Studiomamma.ch, Münchenbuchsee BE