

Darknessbright featuring Thaïs 03:59

You solid unbreakable as big as a rock
I stand on your shoulders reaching the top
I'm speaking 'bout the peaks that I reached that I got
The valleys the lows you guided me through
When the cracks and the holes could've swallowed me up
Didn't see the bigger picture in the frame of the plot
I would've lost my way in the thick of midnight fog
You saw that and told me to listen think and stop
My hard head led me I needed to get knocked
Make my own mistakes you felt it as I sobbed
You felt it in your own way aching as it throbbed
And like a mother could you were breaking at your heart
Picking up my pieces as you broke and fell apart
Moulding me together whether I knew it or not
Sculpting me turning me into a piece of art
That's why I carry you in the depths of my heart

Chorus

*You, you, you, you only you make the day seem bright
Shine on me and make the darkness light
Oh you give me my pride
That's what, that's what you do
Anytime in my life*

Made me feel like a star like all children are Sometimes I forgot sank to the bottom bar
Dug me a hole beneath the blackened tar
You found me and healed me from my gaping scars
Always showed me who and what we are
That miracles do happen every second how
Even the smallest ones are blessings I reckon our Time will come to pass so I say "I'll miss you" now
Can't say in words or even mention how we feel
I can't even speak the sound
Your daughter and sons are men and women now
You raised warriors, ones who don't kneel and bow
We stand with our own two feet on the ground
Now grown folks talk and speak when we around
We fight if we need to and go pound for pound
But we fond of love easy to settle down
