

Head Nod Movement 03:59

Chorus

*So when you walking down the street you got to know why
You doing the head nod movement
And when you holler to your peeps you got to know why
They giving you the head nod movement
And when you rocking to the beat you better know why
It's giving you the head nod movement
This movement needs to unify now you know why
This is that classical head nod movement*

Back in the day I was so hungry use to spit for days
When I got the mike I rocked it tight and never walked away
It's like that feeling in your stomach that you can't explain
You close your eyes you reach that level where you drift away
Your third eye opens and space time slips away
And for a second in your life you're immortal
You realise that your mike is your portal
You skip a level of existence that's not normal
But I love to trip I love this level of abnormal
And when I'm floating away I speak calm though
Feeling the pulse in my arm getting strong now
I drift back from heaven to come home to
Earth wind and fire, Isaac Hayes on the stereo
All of this music playing blazing in the living room
Now that's the kinda music I was raised to
And one day would lead me to the head nod movement

Now I'm connected to all heads through this song so
This goes to people in Rwanda up in arms yo
And from Tanzania, Senegal into Congo
We leaving from Japan and then travelling to Moscow
Seoul, Korea cross the waters into Oslo
All across Latin America the song grows
From Venezuela to Columbia, Chile to Brazil
It don't matter where you from cos it's strong and it's real
Hip hop the movement I know where I belong to
So do you wanna know the deal well
Passing the knowledge all around in a circle
All across the globe it's going universal
Now this is true hip hop is like a jewel that is rare
Brothers and sisters it's a family affair
With my emcees up on stage with their hands in the air
Like they saying a prayer for the people out there
